

- The Steps of Meeting with a CCPartner

Hi, CCP partners. Welcome to our program!

As you are seeing this text, I believe you have gotten your partner's information.

Now, I am going to demonstrate to you what you exactly need to do this quarter with our program!!

I. Check the information of your partner

First, you can check your partner's informations in our CCP system.

Goto "<http://www.deanza.edu/ccpartners/ccpapp/>" and login your account, then you can see you have a partner!!

Tip: 1. click your partner's name can view partner's information.

2. Click "(S)" just right after partner's name can view partner's schedule.

II. Start Meeting

You can contact your partner through the email or the phone number she/he will provide, and make an appointment to start your activities with CCP!

The requirements of a meeting:

- 1) You have to meet your partner at least five hours and at least five times this quarter.--each meeting lasts one hour.
- 2) Your partner and you can decide where you meet. There is no limitation of location. Our suggestion is to meet in the cafeteria, the MLC or ATC313 (the Listening and speaking center, where our office is located).
- 3) During the meeting, you can talk about any topic you are interested in; just talk like you do with your friends!
- 4) After every meeting, you have to write a meeting log to say something about this meeting.--Try to write from 75 to 150 words.
- 5) Have fun! Feel free while participating in CCP!

Tip: If your partner don't reply your message or meet with you, please contact US!!

III. How can I submit a meeting log?

1. You must submit your meeting logs into our system, by click "Partner Meeting Log Entry."
