Course Description: Child, Family and Community Interrelationships, 4 quarter units of credit (4 hours per week lecture)
Child, Family and Community Interrelationships is an introduction to the study of the developing person in a societal context; and the relationships of family, schools and the community. It is a systematic and critical study of the ways in which families, schools and other institutions of the community interact in the lives of young children. The patterns of child rearing in our contemporary society will be explored.

Standards applicable to this course:
National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC)
STANDARD 2: Building Family and Community Relationships
Students prepared in early childhood degree programs understand that successful early childhood education depends upon partnerships with children’s families and communities. They know about, understand and value the importance and complex characteristics of children’s families and communities. They use this understanding to create respectful, reciprocal relationships that support and empower families and to involve families in their children’s development.
2a – Knowing about and understanding diverse family and community characteristics.
2b – Supporting and engaging families through respectful, reciprocal relationships.
2c – Involving families and communities in their children’s development and learning.

STANDARD 5: Becoming a professional
Students prepared in associate degree programs identify and conduct themselves as members of the early childhood profession. They know and use ethical guidelines and other professional standards related to early childhood practice. They are continuous, collaborative learners who demonstrate knowledgeable, reflective, and critical perspectives on their work, making informed decisions that integrate knowledge from a variety of sources. They are informed advocates for sound educational practices and policies.
5a – Identifying and involving oneself with the early childhood field.
5b – Knowing about and upholding ethical standards and other professional guidelines.
5c – Engaging in continuous, collaborative learning to inform practice.
5d – Integrating knowledgeable, reflective and critical perspectives on early education.
5e – Engaging in informed advocacy for children and the profession.

SUPPORTIVE SKILLS
(1) skills in self assessment and self-advocacy; (2) skills in mastering and applying foundational skills from general education; (3) written and verbal communication skills; (4) skills in making connections between prior knowledge/experience and new learning; and (5) skills in identifying and using professional resources.

NBPTS Early Childhood Generalist Standards; Standard 2 Equity, Fairness and Diversity; Standard 7 Family, Community Partnerships; Standard 9 Reflective Practice
CEC/DEC Standards; Standard 9 Professional and Ethical Practice; Standard 10 Collaboration)

School Board Meeting Attendance and Write-Up

- Attend a school board meeting where a controversial issue is discussed (select your home school district).
  - You can access board meeting dates and topics on your neighborhood district website.
  - For example, I live in San Jose Unified District. Parents have been discussing the 5 days mandatory furlough which has kept children out of school. At the Board meeting held on Nov 9th, community members were organized to speak.

- As part of the final exam, prepare the following:
  1. Describe the issue in one paragraph, give background information if available
  2. Explain the views of the board, administrators, teachers, parents and or students.
  3. What was the outcome of the discussion?
  4. What was your opinion of the experience?

Academic Integrity

Principles of academic integrity adopted by DeAnza College’s Academic Senate require that students apply the following standards to all coursework, assignments, and exams. Further details on Academic Integrity can be found at: http://faculty.deanza.edu/academicsenate/academicintegrity

Students should:
• Start research and writing early enough to ensure that there is enough time to do your best work,
• Allow sufficient time to learn (plan at least 2 hours per unit per week in your schedules),
• Request disability-related accommodations in a timely and appropriate manner,
• Hand in papers which have been specifically prepared for the course, not papers borrowed from someone else or recycled from an earlier course,
• Not be satisfied with a paper that is less than one’s best work,
• Seek only appropriate help from others (such as proof-reading or discussing their ideas with someone else to gain clarity in their thinking),
• Do your own work without copying others, and
• Give full and proper credit to all sources.

It is essential for you, the student, to cite sources in any paper written, giving credit to those who have done the original research and written the article or book cited. This will allow me to verify that you have properly understood what the author was trying to say and have paraphrased his/her views accurately. Further details on appropriate citation for assignments in this course will be posted on Catalyst.

If there is suspicion that the work handed in is not entirely your own, I may request to meet with you in person to determine if there has been a violation of DeAnza’s Academic Integrity Policy. If it is determined that plagiarism or cheating has occurred, you will receive a zero on the assignment and possibly fail the course.
