The Purpose of Writing

“What is written without purpose, will not be read with much pleasure.”
Linh Ton, Success Class (fall 2013)

SUCCESS CLASS, FALL 2013

The IMPACT AAPI Peer Mentor Program started its first quarter this winter with an enthusiastic group of students, most of whom have taken IMPACT AAPI courses before.

The Peer Mentors for the CREM classes (EWRT 1A.18D and Math 114.06D) include Chianne Laiwa, Lilian Dang, Bianca Chang, Tam Tran, and Milborne Eugenio. The Peer Mentors for the LART 211 class are Henry Do, Christine Winn, and Linh Ton.

Peer Mentors are helping facilitate classroom discussions, class community-building, peer editing, and other work as well as meeting with students outside of class to give feedback on homework or just offer moral support.

IMPACT instructors Amy Leonard, Doli Bhambania, Veronica Avila, and Karen Chow, as well as IMPACT counselors Tom Nguyen, Susanne Chan, and Erick Aragon, and CREM and LART students benefit significantly from the Peer Mentor’s work.

Contact Karen Chow for more about the peer mentoring effort: chowkaren@deanza.edu
