SEVIS Fee Requirement

Beginning October 24, 2008, the SEVIS fee has increased from $100 to $200. Fee Payment is required if the applicant is:

“An Alien in the United States seeking a change of status to F-1, F-3, J-1, M-1 or M-3.

Fee payment not required if applicant is:

“A nonimmigrant who has applied for a change-of-status in the United States on an F, M and J classification, had the initial application for the change of status denied for a reason other than failure to pay the SEVIS fee, and is applying for a motion to re-open the case within 12 months of the original denial.”

1 Many foreign banks are able to issue checks or money orders drawn on a U.S. bank. You may therefore obtain a check from: 1) a bank chartered or operated in the United States; b) a foreign subsidiary of a U.S. bank, or c) a foreign bank that has an arrangement with a U.S. bank to issue a check, money order, or foreign draft that is drawn on a U.S. bank.
