New part-time faculty are encouraged to attend a De Anza College orientation. This meeting will include a nuts-and-bolts session with an overview of the Faculty Resource Guide, an introduction to the culture and organization of De Anza College, and a review of the various forms and procedures you will need to know in the first few weeks of the term. Mary Ellen Goodwin, part-time representative of the Faculty Association will be present to talk about part-time faculty rights and benefits. José Luis Rueda will facilitate training on FHDA MyPortal, Outlook Web Application (OWA) e-mail and other critical technology for new faculty.

TEACHING AND LEARNING SERIES: Infusing Popular Culture Into Your Classroom

Fri, February 21; 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM; MLC-243
How can professors use popular culture to help students connect to and relate with the material being taught? Ethan Lee, the workshop presenter, will discuss these questions and more while doing several exercises designed to produce lectures and classroom activities that you can use in your classroom. These exercises will include: 1. Researching popular music, video games, TV shows, movies, websites, and mobile apps 2. Connecting these items to a particular discipline 3. Creating a lecture and exercise around this connection. The end product of these exercises will be something tangible you can use in your class and will be presented during our workshop. Part-time faculty stipends available, full-time faculty earn professional growth hours.

1st YEAR EXPERIENCE PROGRAM FOR NEW FACULTY It's Just Good Pedagogy: Culturally Responsive Teaching and Cultural Humility in the Classroom

Fri, February 28; 9:30 - 10:30 AM; MLC-246
Dr. Veronica Neal, Director of the Office of Equity, Social Justice & Multicultural Education will lead this workshop which introduces the concept of cultural humility and its importance to faculty, our students and our institution.

Enhancing Student Learning Through SLO's
