ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICANS:

7:00 pm - 8:00 pm, Hinson Campus Center, Conf. Room B

Film Screenings by De Anza College Asian Pacific American Students

Directors scheduled to appear at this event include recent graduates AC Lorenzo and Rekha Radhakrishnan; current film students Jack Chen and Marjorie Loh; and De Anza students Michael Regal, Tim Dang, and Renato Gomez. Light refreshments provided.

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE TO THE PUBLIC AND WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE.

Sign language interpreter available upon request by contacting JERRICK ( ) 408 690-2944 at least five business days prior to event date.
TUESDAY, MAY 4
1:30 pm - 3:00 pm, Hinson Campus Center, Conf. Ro
Iris Chang, "In Search of Justice: The Rape of Nanking and The Chinese in America"

The De Anza Visiting Speaker Series presents author Iris Chang presents "In Search of Justice: The Rape of Nanking and The Chinese in America". Chang, author of the acclaimed books, The Rape of Nanking and The Chinese in America.

TUESDAY, MAY 11
1:30 pm - 3:00 pm, Hinson Campus Center, Conf. Rooms A & B
Dr. Elaine H. Kim, "Challenges & Empowerment: a Personal Journey"

Lecture by Dr. Elaine H. Kim (Professor/Film Producer/Community Activist), one of the first tenured Asian American women at a major American university.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 12
12:00 pm - 1:00 pm, Campus Main Quad
Live Musical Performance by J. Turtle

Emerging from the San Diego music scene, J. Turtle is an adult contemporary acoustic guitarist, singer, songwriter, arranger, and producer formerly from the South Bay. His music blends vibrant lyrics and catchy melodies with a percussive style of guitar that stands uniquely on its own.

For more information on J-Turtle, visit: www.jturtlemusic.com

5:00 pm - 9:00 pm, Hinson Campus Center, Conf. Room B
Asian Pacific American Heritage Month Recognition Ceremony

Join De Anza students, faculty, and staff for free refreshments & live performances by members of the Vietnamese Student Association and performance artist Kristina Sheryl Wong. Celebrate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month at De Anza College by members of the Vietnamese Student Association and performance artist Kristina Sheryl Wong. Celebrate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month at De Anza College.

THURSDAY, MAY 13
11:30 am - 1:00 pm, Hinson Campus Center, Conf. Room B
Book Reading and Discussion: The Tao of Yao with Author Oliver Chin

Author Oliver Chin will read and discuss his recently published book, The Tao of Yao, about NBA basketball star Yao Ming. Presenting quotes from Yao Ming as well as others, The Tao of Yao also includes sports statistics, biographical information, photographs, illustrations, commentary divided by subject, and a brief introduction to Taoism.

SATURDAY, MAY 15
Begins 6:00 pm, Flint Center
Vietnamese Student Association (VSA) Cultural Performance

Ticket required for admission. Advanced ticket purchase $12; at the door $15

A spectacular annual event filled with live entertainment including cultural dances, songs, and comedic skits by members and supporters of the De Anza College Vietnamese Student Association. Performances will be conducted largely in Vietnamese.

TUESDAY, MAY 18
1:30 pm - 3:00 pm, Hinson Campus Center, Conf. F
Film Showing and Discussion of "Labor Women" with Filmmaker Renee Tajima-Pena

This event will present the showing of "Labor Women" followed by a discussion with Filmmaker/UCSC professor Renee Tajima-Pena. The film presents a profile of the new generation of Asian Pacific American women labor activists, Linh Chong, Kari Zombro, and Quynh Nguyen, as they organize amongst women in Los Angeles. The documentary also features interviews with veteran women labor organizers.

TUESDAY, MAY 19
1:30 pm - 3:00 pm, Hinson Campus Center, Conf. Rooms A & B
Film Screening: "Searching for Asian American" by Don Young

Special screening and discussion of the documentary film, "Searching For Asian American" with director Don Young.

Focused on personal portraits, SEARCHING FOR ASIAN AMERICA explores the lives of four very different individuals: Gary Locke, the Chinese American governor of the state of Washington; Martin Bautista and Jeffrey Lim, Filipino physicians living in rural Oklahoma, and Lea Lee, a young Korean American actress and the creator of the popular web comic "Angry Little Girls." Through the details of their lives, the series examines the larger universal issues of identity, family, work, citizenship and community. SEARCHING FOR ASIAN AMERICA will provide audiences intimate insights into a community that is growing, evolving and pushing the boundaries of America's cultural landscape.

SATURDAY, MAY 22
8:00 am (Registration begins), Hinson Campus Center
3rd Annual Asian Pacific American Student Empowerment Conference

Faces of Solidarity: Telling our story

Registration required; walk-ins welcome. This year’s conference will focus on the themes community, solidarity, and unity. Workshop sessions and discussion groups are offered throughout the day. This annual De Anza student-organized conference is open to De Anza College students, faculty and staff and local high school students. Lunch will be provided.

Korean Youth Cultural Center Drumming

Join De Anza students, faculty, and staff for free refreshments & live performances by members of the Vietnamese Student Association and performance artist Kristina Sheryl Wong. Celebrate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month at De Anza College by members of the Vietnamese Student Association and performance artist Kristina Sheryl Wong.

Since 1987, Korean Youth Cultural Center (KYCC) provides a space for people to cultivate and share Korean and Korean American culture, identity, politics, history and community. KYCC will perform samulnori. A modern derivative of pungmul, a combination of Korean folk drumming, dancing, and singing uses gong, janggu, and hwajung.