

Chapter 6

- a.) State precisely Bentham's Classical Principle of Utility.
- b.) State precisely J. S. Mill's Greatest Happiness Principle.
- c.) Explain the primary rule of morality, according to Mill.
- d.) Describe how these principles would be applied to the Mathew Donnelly euthanasia case.
- e.) Explain Bentham and Mill's view regarding the purpose of law and the freedom of citizens.
- f.) Compare and contrast the Christian tradition following St. Thomas Aquinas with the utilitarian tradition following Bentham on the treatment of nonhuman animals.
- g.) Who is Peter Singer? Explain Singer's arguments regarding animal experimentation and the system of meat production. What does Rachels think is most revolutionary about Singer's utilitarian ideas?