6. REQUIREMENTS

The following is the minimum requirements for the course:

1. Make sure you have a valid e-mail address on record with De Anza.
 2. Submit questions by posting them on Canvas.
 3. Download and print the course materials of each week from Canvas.
 4. Do assignments as shown in Table 7.

7. ORIENTATION

Do the orientation on line. The information is given below:

<https://deanza.instructure.com/courses>

8. DROP POLICY

I have to drop those students who did not participate in the course on the census day. One indication of participation is to do one-line orientation and finish the assignments (quizzes, homeworks, and discussion) during the first week of the course.

After the census day, dropping is your responsibility. If you do not drop yourself, it means that you want to stay in the course. In this case, an appropriate grade will be assigned to you at the end of the quarter.

9. COURSE MATERIALS

The following course materials are required for the course: Reading Materials and email address.

Reading Materials

I will post the reading materials for each week on Canvas.

E-mail Address

Make sure you have a valid e-mail address on record with De Anza.

14. GRADE RESPONSE

You receive the grade for homeworks, midterm, and final exam withing the 48 hours of the assignment due date. You need to check the final grade with the college at the end of the quarter.

15. INCOMPLETE

Academic work is incomplete for unforeseeable, emergency and justifiable reasons at the end of the term. At least 60 percent of the class must have been completed to qualify for Incomplete status. In other words, the student must have done all assignments in Table 7 except the final test to qualify for Incomplete status.

16. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The De Anza College Schedule of Classes, in the section titled, “Academic Integrity” states that “the submission of work which is not the product of a student's personal effort, or work which in some way circumvents the given rules or regulations will not be tolerated.” Based on this statement, copying another person's work, is an infraction of academic integrity and may result in a failing grade.

17. DISABILITY

De Anza College views disability as an important aspect of diversity, and is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. Disability Support Services (DSS) is the campus office that collaborates with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations. If you have, or think you have, a disability in any area such as, mental health, attention, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical, please contact DSS to arrange a confidential discussion regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations. If you are registered with DSS and have accommodations set by a DSS counselor, please be sure that your instructor has received your accommodation letter from Clockwork early in the quarter to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course. Students who need accommodated test proctoring must meet appointment booking deadlines at the Testing Center.

- a. Midterm exam be booked at least five (5) business days in advance of the instructor approved exam date/time.
- b. Final exams must be scheduled seven (7) business days/weekdays in advance of the instructor approved exam date/time.
- c. Failure to meet appointment booking deadlines will result in the forfeit of testing accommodations and you will be required to take your exam in class. Contact the DSS if you cannot find or utilize your MyPortal Clockwork Portal.
