Course Description: Theory and techniques of public speaking in a democratic society. An introduction to a variety of perspectives and approaches used to research, organize, deliver, and evaluate public presentations. Students will develop and apply effective research strategies.

Textbook: Public Speaking Project Virtual Text
<https://web.archive.org/web/20170606121939/http://publicspeakingproject.org/psvirtualtext.html>

Materials: 4 by 6-inch note cards.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- SLO1: Organize, compose, present, and critically evaluate informative and persuasive presentations appropriate in content and style to the audience and situation.
- SLO2: Display increasing confidence in speaking extemporaneously.
- SLO3: Demonstrate effective listening skills in various public speaking contexts.
- SLO4: Identify, locate, evaluate, and use information technologies and information sources.

Course Objectives:

- Examine historical and cultural traditions of public speaking in both domestic and global contexts and their impact on our views, beliefs, and practices relating to speaking in public.
- Evaluate how making the decision to respect diversity, speak ethically, and think critically influences communication outcomes.
- Demonstrate skills in analyzing diverse audiences and creating presentations appropriate to those audiences.
- Research, analyze, organize, prepare, and evaluate informative and persuasive speeches.
- Develop confidence in delivering speeches extemporaneously.
- Develop listening skills to foster respectful, reflective, and critical listening appropriate for public presentations.

Course Requirements:

- Attendance and Participation: Because your role includes being a speaker, a listener, and an evaluator, your participation is vital to this class. School policy dictates that students are responsible for dropping classes that they no longer attend. All students must attend the final class.
- Reading Assignments: Students are responsible for reading the assigned textbook chapters.
- Written Assignments: Written assignments must be typed and double-spaced for submission. Uploaded assignments on Canvas must be in a PDF, .doc, or .docx file type. Prior to an assigned speech, a typed, full-sentence (complete sentence) preparation must be submitted to Turnitin on Canvas. Five-points will be deducted for late submissions.
- Online Assignments: Online assignments will be posted on Canvas weekly.
- Speeches: There will be five graded speeches during the course. All five speeches will be conducted on Zoom using Sign-up Genius posted in the Module section in advance of the designated speech days. Students must complete their speeches on the designated speech days otherwise five-points will be deducted from the speech evaluations.
- Quizzes: There will be 10 quizzes (@ five-points each) based on the assigned readings and lectures that will allow ample time, with multiple opportunities, and based on the highest score.
- Academic Honesty: Plagiarism or cheating may result in failing an assignment. Visit Academic Integrity to review college policy: "Plagiarism is representing the work of someone else as your own. Incorporating the ideas, words, sentences, paragraphs, or parts of another person's writings, without giving appropriate credit, and representing the product as one's own. Representing another's artistic or scholarly words such as musical compositions, computer programs, photographs, paintings, drawings, or sculptures as your own. Submitting a paper purchased from a research or term paper service, including the internet. Undocumented Web source usage."
- College course policy: "Students must have access to the following: a computer, the internet, an individual email address, and a webcam-enabled device for on-camera presentations."
