

De Anza College - Jean Miller Resource Room

Job Description:

We are looking for at least one open-minded De Anza student to fill an internship position for the Jean Miller Resource Room. This space is continually evolving to meet the changing needs of the campus, and interns serve a vital role in ensuring that JMRR remains connected to the students and to the community which it serves. Work includes organizing and advocating for the center, attending regular team meetings, and collaborating with entities on campus to develop programs and centralize resources. Each intern will be involved in a 9-month internship, working up to 10 hours/week. The internship runs October 2019 through June 2020 and interns will earn $15/hour.

Job Duties:

- Attend weekly meetings with the core leadership group.
- Hold weekly office hours in the Center
- Undergo and organize sexual violence education and safe space trainings.
- Attend academic conferences, equity trainings, and other campus events relevant to your work with JMRR
- Produce an event, service, or program for the Office of Equity and/or JMRR programming
- Increase the Center's visibility on campus through interactive activities with students
- Work with other students involved in campus equity as well as those committed to women, gender, and sexuality work.

Job Qualifications:

Applicants must:

- Be a De Anza student with 12 units each quarter Fall 2018 through Spring 2019 with a minimum of 2.0 GPA.
- Understand various forms of oppression, including racism, sexism, classism, heteronormativity, ableism, and the ways they intersect.
- Maintain professionalism and confidentiality especially while dealing with sensitive matters.
- Be committed to social justice and making a difference on campus.

How to Apply:

Please send a completed application form with a Cover Letter outlining your interest and qualifications for the intern position to Chesa Caparas, Faculty Coordinator of JMRR.

De Anza Food Pantry, is located in the Outreach Office (Seminar 3 Building) and is available to any De Anza student who qualifies for assistance. To be eligible, students must have a student ID and meet the income guidelines for the Emergency Food Assistance Program (EFAP). Go to link for their hours, you can also reach out to outreach@deanza.edu or 408.864.8327.

Sacred Heart Community Services

This community service organization serves all people in the community, but focuses on women and children in need. They welcome volunteers, and this would be the avenue for our students to participate as Interns. The process is pretty straightforward: To volunteer (or serve as an intern) students would need to

1. complete an application
2. get the application approved
3. attend a new member orientation
4. schedule their first volunteer shift and
5. stay plugged in by logging on to their volunteer account. Details are available at: <https://sacredheartcs.org/volunteer/>

Asian Americans for Community Involvement

AACI welcomes students as interns or volunteers, and are especially interested in those who would like to be involved in their youth programs AMPLIFY and EXPLORE. These programs focus on creative expression and education for students 9-13 years of age, and the program is looking for young adults who want to be involved with these programs. For more information students can contact AACI at: <https://amplify.aaci.org/>
